

THE CONSPIRACY TRACKER

ISSUE NO. 7

THE FRANKIST CULT

As was promised in Issue 4, we shall now look into the history of the Frankists --a cult that now calls itself the Cult of the All-Seeing Eye. We believe this Order to be the hidden command center of all secret societies and occult orders. As such, it has remained hidden from view even during this time when there is a plethora of conspiracy and secret society books being written.

The history begins in the year 1666. At this time, an expert Cabalist named Shabbetai Tzvi, who was born in Turkey in 1626, appeared to the Jews of that region claiming to be the long-awaited for Messiah. He was hailed as Messiah by over a million Jews, even though he was married to a prostitute. Promising to deliver the Jews from their enemies, he marched to Constantinople to oppose the Sultan. However, he was captured and thrown into prison. The Sultan gave Shabbetai a choice --death or conversion to the Islamic faith. The Messiah chose the latter, thus disillusioning thousands of his followers.

But some of his followers were not to be so easily deterred. They rationalized his action by saying that before the Messiah could bring redemption, he would first have to experience sin--and hence his reason for the Islamic conversion. Those who continued in the "faith" became known as the Donmeh. (The teachings of Shabbetai also inspired the formation of the Hasidic Jews. Hasidism favored mystical union with God, to be attained in part through ecstatic dancing. Such dances, capable of creating altered states of consciousness, were also performed by the Russian Klysty sect to which Rasputin belonged.)

Years later, Jacob Frank (1726-1791) was travelling in Turkey and encountered the Donmeh. Frank refined their concept (concerning Shabbetai's conversion), and told them to emulate their Messiah by sinning. Frank convinced the Donmeh that sin was the way to salvation.

By 1755, Frank had founded his own Order --the Frankists. They were also known as the Zoharists or the Illuminated. The Zohar (Book of Light or Book of Splendor) is one of the most important Cabalistic works.

In an attempt to sin their way into salvation, the Frankists indulged in sexual orgies. Members of the sect were allowed to sexually know Frank's wife, Channa. She was used as bait to lure hundreds of members into the Order. The members of the Order were taught that Jacob Frank was God incarnate, and so they readily obeyed his commands.

In 1759, the Frankists feigned conversion to Catholicism so that they could penetrate and destroy the Church from within. Frank was baptized in a Warsaw cathedral. To prove their sincerity, they even went so far as to instigate burnings of the Talmud. They also gained favor by acknowledging that the charges of Jewish ritual murder were true. But, by 1760, Frank was accused of heresy and thrown into prison. It was discovered that the Frankists did not worship the God of the Bible, but rather they worshipped Frank himself. Frank was released from prison in 1773, but only because it was the eve of the first partition of Poland due to the Russian conquest.

Frank then established his headquarters in Germany. It was in Germany at this very time that Adam Weishaupt was forming the Order of the Illuminati. Thus, the Frankists and the Illuminati existed together in time and in geography. The Frankists actually became a separate clique which functioned within the Illuminati. It was Jacob Frank who concocted the chemical potions for which the Illuminati became famous. These included a potion to induce abortion, and a drug for mind-control. This drug was later used on the mobs during the French Revolution. The mobs were actually brigands who were transported from Germany, Italy, and the southern part of France. The people of Paris huddled in fear in their homes as the imported, drug-induced mobs ravaged the city. The French Revolution was never a popular movement, although this is how establishment history paints it. (For info on importations of mobs, see "The French Revolution" by Nesta Webster.)

In his book "The Messianic Idea In Judaism", the Jewish writer Gershom Scholem says that the Frankists believed in "the annihilation of every religion and positive system of belief" and "of a general revolution that would sweep away the past in a single stroke so that the world might be rebuilt." In these statements, one finds the same program as that of the Illuminati --the destruction of religion and the creation of a New World Order. Scholem also notes that Jacob Frank believed that destruction was representative of "Luciferian radiance." This is Illuminism!!!

In his book "To Eliminate The Opiate" (the book from which we are primarily deriving our Frankist information), Rabbi Marvin S. Antelman says that the great merchant bankers of Europe were included in the Frankist membership. These were the international bankers who exerted influence in Europe's highest financial circles. This would certainly have to include the Rothschilds who have been linked to the formation of the Illuminati by several researchers including William Guy Carr, ex-Grand Druid John Todd, and Myron Fagan.

Another important Frankist was the Cabalist named Hayyim Samuel Jacob Falk, also known as Dr. Falk, the Baal Shem of London. (Baal Shem means Master of the Name, i.e. the Ineffable Name of God.) Dr. Falk was born in 1708 and died in 1782. He was known as "the Chief of all the Jews." The howling mobs of the French Revolution were paid with money obtained by the Duke of Orleans from the Frankist Dr. Falk. The Duke was guided in his aspirations to the French throne by the Illuminist Mirabeau. Concerning Falk and the Duke, Nesta Webster in "Secret Societies And Subversive Movements" says: "One fact then, looms out of the darkness that envelops the secret power behind the Orleanist conspiracy, one fact of supreme importance, and based moreover on purely Jewish evidence: the Duke was in touch with Falk when in London and Falk supported his scheme of usurpation. Thus behind the arch-conspirator of the revolution stood 'the Chief of all the Jews.' Is it here perhaps, in Falk's 'chests of gold' that we might find the source of some of those loans raised in London by the Duc d'Orleans to finance the riots of the Revolution..." Webster notes that such Jewish Cabalists as Jacob Frank, Dr. Falk, Count Cagliostro, and Comte de Saint-Germain were all prominent at around the time of the French Revolution.

The Frankists operated within the Illuminati, while the Illuminati operated within Freemasonry. Together with the Jacobins (the outer aspect of the hidden Masonic Lodges), they presided over the destruction of France. The French Revolution was that first great Cabalistic revolution, and it would later serve as a blueprint for the Russian Revolution of 1917. The Frankists believed that such carnage was necessary before "Luciferian radiance" could take place.

As was pointed out in Issue 4, today the Frankists no longer go under that name --but, instead, according to Rabbi Antelman, they have grown into an international group, and call themselves the Cult of the All-Seeing Eye.. Since the All-Seeing Eye resides at the apex of the pyramid, the Frankist elite in assuming the title "Cult of the All-Seeing Eye, acknowledge that they reside at the apex --and therefore are the secret government of the secret societies and the occult world.

While originally working for the overthrow of Christianity and Islam, the Frankists now believe that Buddhism, Hinduism, and Confucianism must also be penetrated and taken over. Only then can the Cabalistic Millenium be ushered in --and racial Illuminism attained.

There is one other small item that may prove that the Frankists were the real power behind the Illuminati. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia of 1913, Mary Shelley, authoress of "Frankenstein" was a member of the Illuminati. There is a coded meaning to the name Frankenstein. It is really three words --FRANK-EN-STEIN. The "FRANK" is a reference to Jacob Frank. The "EN" is an anglicisation of the Hebrew word "ayin" which means eye. "STEIN" is the German word for stone. In short, the name Frankenstein means Frank's Eye Over the Stone (the pyramid). Thus, Shelley considered the All-Seeing Eye to be the eye of Jacob Frank. Since she was an Illuminist, one would think that she would title her novel using the name of Adam Weishaupt. But, the novel was not titled "Weishauptstein" -- it was titled "Frankenstein." Was this because the young Mary Shelley understood that the Frankists were the real force behind the Illuminati.

It should further be explained that the Frankists sought the creation of the Golem --a figure of a man formed out of earth or clay, and brought to life through Cabalistic black magic. The legend of the Golem forms the basis of the Frankenstein story.

In going through this history of the Frankists, brief though it was, we deliberately left out one very important event. This event, believe it or not, will take us into the UFO mystery!!!

THE MELCHIZEDEK CONNECTION

Not only did the Frankists operate with in the Illuminati and Masonry, but according to Rabbi Antelman, they were particularly active in a secret society called the Lodge of the Asiatic Brethren. The full name of this Lodge was "The Brothers of St. John The Evangelist of Asia." This secret society had been formed in 1780-81 in Vienna by Hans Heinrich Von Ecker, who had attended the Congress of Wilhelmsbad in 1782 -- the famous gathering wherein the Illuminati gained control of the secret societies.

Von Ecker used the teachings of Shabbetai to tie his Order into the traditions of the Orient. Thus, the Asiatic Brethren were fertile ground for a Frankist intrusion.

In his book "Jews And Freemasons In Europe", Jacob Katz writes: "In theory, The Order of Asiatics had not been founded as a substitute for Freemasonry, but to construct an upper level above the regular Masonic structure." Keeping in mind what Rabbi Antelman said about the Frankists being active within the Asiatic Brethren, it is extremely important to note that special lodges to serve Jewish needs were formed within the Order of Asiatics. These lodges were called "Melchizedek Lodges" -- and they were open to Jew and non-Jew. Jews would take their initiation oath with the Bible opened to Genesis 14 where Melchizedek is mentioned; Christians would have the Bible opened to the Gospel of St. John. At around this same time, the secret societies began using the names of John The Baptist and John The Evangelist interchangeably.

Were the Frankists responsible for creating the Melchizedek Lodges? Remember, Von Ecker had formed the Asiatics in 1780-81. In 1782, the Asiatics were taken under the wing of the Illuminati, along with all the secret societies. By that time, the Frankists were operating within the Illuminati. A tangled web indeed!!!

Concerning the Melchizedek Lodges, Nesta Webster wrote: "In the Melchizedek Lodges of the continent, non-Christians were openly admitted, and here again the Rose-Croix degree occupies the most important place. The highest degrees of this rite were the Initiated Brothers of Asia, the Masters of the Wise, and the Royal Priests otherwise known as the degree of Melchizedek."

deck or the true Brothers of the Rose-Croix." We see that Webster links the Melchizedek Lodges to the Rosicrucians--those ultra-high occult initiates. It was the Rosicrucians who played an important part in cabalizing Freemasonry.

The real importance of the Melchizedek Lodges to our current study is that ufologist Jacques Vallee links them to the modern UFO mystery. In his research into UFO cults, Vallee constantly came into contact with groups who used the name of Melchizedek. His book "Messengers of Deception" probes the question as to whether there is a control-group manipulating UFO beliefs. Vallee writes: "Might the phenomena, or at least its social effects, be under the control of a human group--not necessarily a government?" We think the answer is "Yes". --and the Cult of the All-Seeing Eye is our prime suspect.

Concerning UFOs, Vallee writes: "They are physical objects, the product of a technology, but they are also something else: the tools of a major cultural change. I think UFOs are perpetrating a deception by presenting their so-called occupants as being messengers from outer space, and I suspect there are groups of people on Earth exploiting this deception."

Vallee believes that the phenomena is being controlled so as to produce social changes via psychological manipulation and conditioning. The ultimate social change would be world government --always the goal of the Cabalistic secret societies. The people of our world are being set up for a UFO invasion --not by craft from outer space, but by devices developed by our own governments. The governments of the world are controlled by Freemasonry, and Masonry is controlled by the Frankist Cult of the All-Seeing Eye.

Any UFO invasion using physical ships--the product of secret anti-gravity experiments--could also be accompanied by holographic projections to augment authenticity. Detroit attorney Constance Cumbey has learned that holographic projectors have been installed on top of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City. The Cathedral is the U.S. headquarters of the Knights of Malta, also known as the Order of St. John. The reader will recall that the Asiatic Brethren had 2 types of Lodges --Melchizedek Lodges and St. John Lodges..

There is even more of a St. John connection to ufology. On June 24, 1964, UFO author Frank Scully died. On June 24, 1967 UFO author Frank Edwards died, as did contactee Arthur Bryant. A British ufologist named Richard Church died on that same day in 1967. On June 24, 1969, pioneer rocket authority Willy Ley died. It was on June 24, 1947 that Kenneth Arnold saw his famous flying saucers.

What is June 24th? It is St. John's Day --the most important day of the year in Freemasonry. This stems from the days of the Knights Templar who had St. John the Evangelist and John the Baptist as their patron saints. June 24th became an official holiday after ratification of the Anderson constitutions of 1717.

It is believed that the men listed above all died of natural causes. But, is it not possible that their deaths were caused by chemical-biological weapons or by some other form of device? Did they know too much?

In "Messengers of Deception", Jacques Vallee also states that he does not believe that any UFO contactees have been aboard physical craft. He writes: "It is more likely that they have taken a non-physical trip, controlled and guided by a system that acts on human consciousness (the Soviets use the term 'psychotronic' to designate such devices), rather than one that is purely physical. The symbols it uses are engineered to have certain effects." Vallee believes that psychotronic weaponry, holograms, pharmacology (the use of drugs to distort the memories of witnesses), could all be under the direction of a human group. Since the days of the French Revolution, the Frankists have been masters of mind-altering drugs.

Ufologist John Keel has reported that in West Virginia in 1967, there were numerous UFO reports. At the same time, there were several reports about mysterious vans or trucks running around on back roads.

Keel believes it is possible that these trucks were used to examine people. Aboard these trucks, the victims could be hypnotized or drugged into believing that they were aboard a vehicle from another planet. Through hypnosis, a confabulation could be placed on their minds. They could be told that they had been taken to another planet, and they would believe it. Their minds would fill in all the necessary details. There is another memory under this confabulation, but it would require many hypnotic sessions with a trained psychiatrist to break through to this second memory. The second memory will usually show that the victim was manhandled, thrown on an examining table, and had bright lights flashed into their eyes. Keel believes that this is true in most cases, but not all. (These trucks were also spotted in Montana, with signs on the side saying "Smithsonian Institute." When the Institute was contacted, there was no knowledge of any such vehicles.)

Aboard these trucks, the minds of human beings could be processed. Then at some period in the future, a post-hypnotic signal could be given-- and an army of terrorists could be unleashed simultaneously throughout the world.

Keeping this in mind, here is what Nesta Webster wrote in 1924 in her book "Secret Societies And Subversive Movements":--"In the opinion of an initiate who belonged for years to the Stella Matutina (a Golden Dawn offshoot--Editor.), the dynamic force employed known as 'Kundalini' is simply an electromagnetic force of which the sex-force is a part, on which the adepts know how to play, and the unseen hand behind all the seeming Spiritism of these Orders is a system of very subtle and cunning hypnotism and suggestion! Further, the aim of this group like that of all subversive Esoteric Orders, is, by means of such processes as eurhythmics, meditations, symbols, ceremonies, and formulas, to awaken this force and produce false 'Illumination' for the purpose of obtaining 'Spiritual Seership,' which is at most clairvoyance, clairsaudience, etc. The ceremonies of the order are hypnotic, and by suggestion create the necessary mental and astral atmosphere, hypnotize and prepare the members to be willing tools in the hands of the controlling adepts."

But isn't it frightening to realize that the same could be done with UFO contactees -- and they would be unwilling tools.

This same initiate told Webster: "I have been convinced that we, as an Order, have come under the power of some very evil occult Order, profoundly versed in science both occult and otherwise, though not infallible, their methods being BLACK MAGIC (emphasis in original--Editor), that is to say, electro-magnetic power, hypnotism, and powerful suggestion. We are convinced that the Order is being controlled by some SUN order after the nature of the Illuminati, if not by that Order itself."

We suspect that the human group that Jacques Vallee suspects, is the same as the group that Webster's initiate friend is sure of -- their methods are identical!

AND THE DECEPTION DEEPENS

In Paris, during his investigations, Jacques Vallee met with 2 people who claimed to be members of the Order of Melchizedek. The Order uses a six-pointed star as its symbol, and like all Cabalistic secret societies talks of world government after the elimination of religion, money, and war. The head of the French Order, a man named Ivan, is also founder of the Front for Christian Liberation, Jesus Revolution, Jesus People Europe, the Charismatic Christian, Jew and Arab Movement, and the Christian Socialist Party. The guy really gets around!

The literature of the French Order states: "The Order of Melchizedek is an association of extraterrestrials where everything is taught and given freely. The first believers will also be the first to be served, and besides they will be given proofs like St. Thomas. They will travel in flying saucers. This has already happened to many of them."

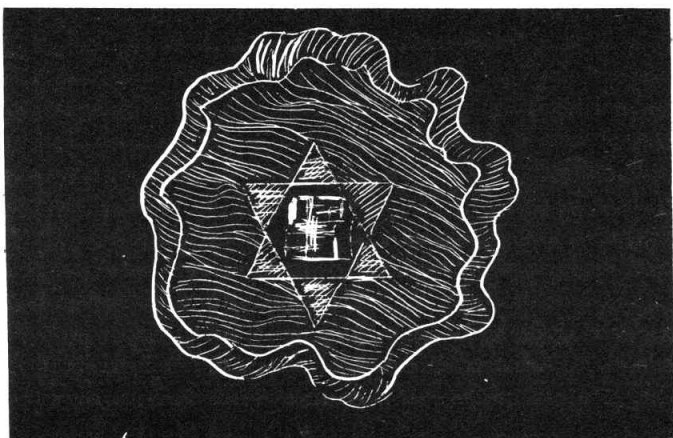

Vallee also met a man who was in contact with the "space people." This man believes in "the elimination of the money system" and the coming of the "New Age." Is it coincidence that so many of them believe the same thing -- or is it programming.

On another occasion, Vallee received a newsletter from something calling itself the California Institute of Transpersonal Psychology, which said: "On the last weekend before the holidays, during our time with Zalman Schachter and with his inspiration and support, eleven second year students were initiated into the Order of Melchizedek. This is a priestly order of more than 2000 years of tradition. Melchizedek is mentioned in Genesis Chapter 14, as the 'Priest of God Most High' who brought bread and wine and initiated Abraham. Since then, priests in the Jewish tradition, in the Roman Catholic, and in the Anglican communion have all been initiated as priests of Melchizedek. (The Mormon Church also has a Melchizedek Priesthood. Its initiation is Masonic through and through --Editor.) Those of us who were initiated on Sunday, March 12 were first baptized by Zalman in the hot tub at Richana's and received new names. The experience was profound, and a fitting culmination of the work of Zalman during the week on the Ten Sephiroth and the Kabbalistic Tree of Life."

The Cabalistic secret societies continue with the same programs that launched the revolutions of centuries past. Only now, the initiations speak of "space brothers" coming to aid Mankind in the quest for Godhood. Is it any wonder that in 1869, Gougenot des Mousseaux wrote: "There will burst forth one fine evening one of these formidable crises which will shake the earth and which occult societies have long prepared for Christian society, and then perhaps will suddenly appear in open day, throughout the entire world, all the militia, all the fraternal and unknown sects of the Cabala. The ignorance, the carelessness in which we live, of their sinister existence, their affinities, and their immense ramifications will in no way prevent them from recognising each other, and under the banner of no matter what universal alliance, giving each other the kiss of Peace, they will hasten to gather together under one Chief..." (As quoted by Stoddard in "Trail of the Serpent.")

In France on December 13, 1973, Claude Vorilhon was out hiking when he saw a UFO hover above the ground. A child-like occupant emerged, bathed in a glow. The craft and the occupant were both adorned with a six-pointed star with a swastika enclosed within. The swastika is a sun-symbol, and the six-pointed star is a symbol of the Universe. In Masonry, this is symbolized by the dot within the circle. There are 4 items we wish to mention in regards to this "close encounter":

(1) Vorilhon now wears the six-pointed star-swastika emblem. Although we usually consider the swastika an anti-Jewish emblem, James Webb in his book "The Occult Establishment", informs us that in past times it was also used by the Jews. It was also used by many ancient peoples, and by the Theosophists.

(2) The "alien" gave Vorilhon a new name-- Rael. (See Revelation 2:17 and 3:12) The name "Rael" is a Hebrew word (Is-rael).

(3) Vorilhon was told that he was selected for the meeting because France was the country where democracy was born. This is a reference to the French Revolution which the secret societies always considered as the birthplace of democracy. The French Revolution was the work of Frank's Frankists and Weishaupt's Illuminati. It was after the Revolution that the Jews were granted complete "civil rights."

(4) Vorilhon now delivers speeches where he says things like: "A world government and a new monetary system must be created. A single language will serve to unify the planet." (Similar to the speeches of Vorilhon were the sermons of Allen Michael Noonan -- "The Cosmic Messiah." Noonan says he was told by extraterrestrial intelligence to "forget about artificial boundaries and nationalism." Noonan was founder of the One World Family in San Francisco, located at the corner of Haight and Masonic streets -- probably not by any accident.)

Jacques Vallee writes: "I believe there is a very real UFO problem. I have also come to believe that it is being manipulated for political ends. And the data suggest that the manipulators may be human beings with a plan for social control." Social control will lead to world government. We often read how world government will allow for political and economic control. Yet, world government is not an "end" to the plans of the manipulators. It is, instead, a means to an "end." The real goal is not political and economic -- it is mystical and religious!!

THE FINAL SECRET

In 1953, Arthur C. Clarke wrote his classic science fiction novel, "Childhood's End." It tells of an alien race from the stars who take over the Earth -- and guide Mankind into the next phase of evolution. The aliens appear in archetypal devil form, although this is concealed from humanity (and the reader) through the first half of the book. At the conclusion of the story, the last generation of humanity undergoes a metamorphosis, and merges with the Overmind -- Clarke's concept of God. (Clarke also hinted at this in the screenplay of the 1968 motion picture "2001: A Space Odyssey.")

A character in the story has this to say as he watches the end of corporeal humanity: "Yes -- I might have guessed. There's a great burning column, like a tree of fire (Overmind --Editor), reaching above the western horizon. It's a long way off, right round the world. I know where it springs from: they're (humanity--Editor) on their way at last, to become part of the Overmind. Their probation is ended: they're leaving the last remnant of matter behind."

This doctrine as presented in the novel sums up the teachings of Cabalistic pantheism. Mankind must become part of God. It is the teachings of the secret societies and of the occult. Although they see it as something to benefit all Mankind, there is one group who see it as solely a benefit to their race. These people are the Jews, and this doctrine is part of esoteric Judaism as presented in the Cabalistic book Zohar.

Since this is an esoteroc doctrine, it is unknown even to many Jews who have no commerce with magical thought. Still, Nesta Webster points out that the Cabala has moulded the mind of the modern Jew. She then quotes the following from Hastings Encyclopedia of Religion And Ethics: "(Kabbalism) has contributed to the formation of modern Judaism, for, without the influence of the Kabbala, Judaism to-day might have been one-sided, lacking in warmth and imagination. Indeed, so deeply has it penetrated into the body of the faith that many ideas and prayers are now immovably rooted in the general body of orthodox doctrine and practice. This element has not only become incorporated, but it has fixed its hold on the affections of the Jews and cannot be eradicated."

Getting back to "Childhood's End", it would appear that Clarke's novel provides a blueprint for world control. Suppose a fleet of flying saucers arrives. These would be physical craft created by our own governments. The occupants present a plan for world peace, and so are accepted by the people of the world as saviours. This would occur after populations have been terrorized by war and revolution. These invaders, actually initiates of the secret societies, would then set up a world government -- and this collectivist political entity would be but a prelude to the coming mystical-religious union with the pantheistic God-force. (See Issue #1 for more thoughts on this matter.) The secret societies and the occult believe that everything must be one before this union can take place. That is why today we see the drive for one world, one religion, one money system, one army, and even one sex.

However, the Hidden Hand believes that only one race will attain Godhood -- and their dupes in the esoteric orders will be left out. For this evolutionary leap into Godhood cannot take place until every non-Jew is dead!!!

In 1936, in her book "Trail Of The Serpent", Miss Stoddard wrote: "With regard to the significance of the symbols and the Jewish unity of race and purpose -- the High Priest joining thumbs and forefingers in blessing the people, thereby represented the Hebrew Divine Triangle in Unity of the Ineffable Name --Yod-He-Vau (Completely it is Yod-He-Vau-He, ot YHVH the Tetragrammaton --Editor)--the Creative Principle which becomes manifest and powerful in the final He, the material basis, in and through which it acts. It is Yahweh, the Tetragrammaton, a symbol of creation or generation, the mysterious union of their God with his creatures and which is said to be all-powerful in working miracles or magic. This Ineffable Name was looked upon by the Jews as too holy and sacred to be spoken, but so that it might not be lost, the High Priest uttered it once a year in the temple at the great feast of Atonement. Further, they hold that the true name will be revealed at the coming of their Messiah, and to many the Messiah means the race!"

In a few minutes the reader will learn that the Jews believe that the utterance of this Ineffable Name will facilitate the evolutionary leap. The Jewish writer Kadmi Cohen has this to say about the Jewish belief in God: "The Jews are not a part of a vast Whole which they reintegrate in dying, but they are a Whole in themselves, defying space, time, life, and death. Can God be outside the Whole? If he exists, necessarily he confounds himself with this Whole ...Thus Divinity in Judaism is contained in the exaltation of the entity represented by the Race--passional entity, eternal flame, it is the Divine essence. It must be preserved and perpetuated, therefore the idea of pure and impure was created." (As quoted by Stoddard in "Trail Of The Serpent".)

Yes, and due to the presence in the world of the "impure" (the non-Jew), the sacred YHVH cannot be spoken, and Godhood cannot be attained by the Jewish race. So, a Millenium is first required (after the setting up of a world state), wherein the people of the world will be slaves to the Cabalistic Hierarchy as foretold in the Talmud. Then, the slaves will be killed, the Ineffable Name uttered, and the Messiah will be born. This is the teaching of the Zohar, the Cabalistic work to which the Frankists have a special affinity. This is not what we are taught in our churches about Judaism. Instead, we hear about how Christians worship the God of the New Testament, and about how the Jews haven't come around to that yet, but do worship the God of the Old Testament. We never hear about racial illuminism, do we?

In his book "The Secret Wisdom Of The Qabalah" (same as Cabala and Kabbala), J. F.C. Fuller, a secret society initiate, has much to say of interest to this present study. In the introduction to the book, it says: "In this book is revealed the secret doctrine of the Qabalah --the key to Hebrew mysticism and magic. In it the author discusses not only the origin of this occult science, but explains its symbolism as a world philosophy which may be made use of either for good or evil. Further, he traces its relationship with Illuminism and the most modern theories of science, showing how religious movements originate and why it is that they decay. This book is a veritable key to both past and present occultism, and consequently, is of profound significance in understanding the nature of those hidden forces which to-day are still attempting to control the world." (It should be mentioned that no place in the book does Fuller ever condemn the Jews for holding the doctrine you are about to learn of.)

In the preface, Fuller writes: "This small book is in no sense a treatise on the Qabalah. Instead, it is a speculative study on one of several secret doctrines which it contains, and, I believe, the key-doctrine of all the others. Should this be correct, then it follows that, unless this doctrine is understood, the whole symbolism of Jewish mysticism must remain obscure, and it is this mysticism, so it seems to me, which constitutes the foundations of Jewish culture and Jewish aspirations."

On page 56 of his book, Fuller has this to say about the Ineffable Name, which we have already mentioned, and whose utterance is to act as the catalyst for evolutionary racial illuminism: "From the Ain Soph Aur emanates Ehyeh the 'I' or 'I Am' --abstract thought; then YHVH, 'It who was, and is, and will be' --thought in time; and lastly Elohim, God in nature and God in the Bible, in which YHVH (Jehovah or Yahweh) is translated as 'Lord', the equivalent of the Hebrew Adonai, for the true name of Tetragrammaton (YHVH) may not be pronounced."

This YHVH (the Tetragrammaton) represents the totality of the Universe -- the essence of Pantheism. YHVH or Yod-He-Vau-He corresponds to the 4 elements of Fire, Water, Air, and Earth. Fuller acknowledges that to the Cabalist "the universe is God in form and in activity."

On page 103, Fuller explains how the "Chosen People" will rule the world. He quotes from the Zohar which mentions a "mixed multitude." This is a reference to the non-Jew. The Zohar states: "In a word, when the 'mixed multitude' are mingled with Israel, the letters of the name YHVH cannot be joined and linked together; but as soon as they are removed from the world then it is said of the letters of God's name that 'On that day the Lord shall be one and his name one.' " (Zecharia 14:9) Thus, we see that a Jewish holy book actually talks of a time when all non-Jews are to be removed.

Nesta Webster writes: "...according to several passages in the Cabala, all the goyim (non-Jews, it means cattle --Editor) are to be swept off the face of the earth when Israel comes into its own. Thus the Zohar relates that the Messiah will declare war on the whole world and all the kings of the world will end by declaring war on the Messiah. But, the Holy One, Blessed be He will display His force and exterminate them from the world." Webster then quotes the Zohar as saying: "At the moment when the Holy One, blessed be He, will exterminate all the goyim of the world, Israel alone will subsist..." The reader must remember that all references to the Messiah, Holy One, etc., are references to the Jewish race.

On page 122 of his book, J.F.C. Fuller writes: "When the Messiah does come, the Sabbatic Millenium will be accomplished; all Israel will be blessed, and will become one nation in the Lord -- that is to say, this world will be inhabited solely by the Chosen People."

On page 142, he writes: "...according to the Hebrews, all the Chosen People, are sons of God, particles of divinity, atoms of spirit, and when all these atoms unite in one spiritual ecstasy, the Messiah is born." This is what takes place at the conclusion of the novel "Childhood's End." Although there, it benefits the last generation of Mankind -- not just one racial group.

On page 181, Fuller quotes from the Zohar where non-Jews are referred to as Esau. The Zohar says: "But with Esau it was not so. His light came at a bound, but it will gradually be withdrawn from him until Israel will come into their own and destroy him completely from this world and from the world to come. Because he plunged into the light all at once, therefore he will be utterly and completely exterminated. Israel's light, on the other hand, will come little by little, until they will become strong. God will illumine them forever."

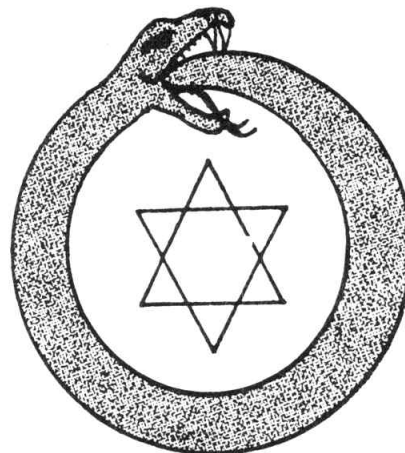

Fuller then writes: " In short, the Chosen People are the light of the world, a light which at present is mixed with darkness. This darkness will vanish little by little; first Israel will 'look forth as the dawn', next she will 'become fair as the moon', then 'as clear as the sun', and lastly 'terrible as an army with banners.' Such is the reformulation of YHVH. When this is accomplished, not a Gentile will be left to pollute the earth; for Israel will have become its Messianic Shin which will untie the tongue of God, and on the utterance of His name will the entire Universe vanish into absolute light. Such is the inner meaning of illuminism to the Qabalist."

This is the serpent with its tail in its mouth. This is the destiny of the inter-laced triangles that form the six-pointed star. Their union is completed as the Universe vanishes. This is the "end" to which world government is but a means. This is the goal of the Frankist Zionists. Secret anti-gravity saucer technology now provides a way to trick the people of the Earth into accepting world rule as a gift from visitors from the stars!!!

P2: AN EMPIRE WITHIN A STATE

by The Political Research Association

On June 18th 1982, the press announced that Mr. Robert Calvi, an international banker, had been found hanging from the Blackfriars Bridge. It seemed an unremarkable event to the mass of the British public, who merely acknowledged that another high flyer who couldn't take the pace had committed suicide.

In Italy the reaction was different, the press calling it not suicide, but murder. Why should someone kill Robert Calvi? This question opened a Pandora's Box of Woe.

It seems that Calvi was in deep trouble as Chairman of Banco Ambrosiano, for the auditors had discovered that there was a shortfall in the bank holdings of 1.4 BILLION dollars; in short someone had filched this money and Calvi was a prime suspect. One Michele Sindona, a banker currently serving 25 years in a US prison for illegal currency dealings, and a close associate of Calvi, is reported to have said on hearing of the death that he had died "because he betrayed his friends." Who were these friends?

The friends turned out to be members of the Masonic Lodge known as Propaganda 2 (P2) based in Rome. As a recognized, regular lodge, it was in communication with the Mother Lodge in England. P2 was a particularly powerful lodge composed of in-fluent national and international figures; members included politicians of most Italian parties, industrialists, bankers and military and security personnel. The exposure of P2 that led on from Calvi's death, caused the Italian government to describe it as "seditious" and institute a parliamentary investigation of the organization; many members hastily quit their jobs.

But surely Freemasonry, which is only concerned with charity and the raising of Mankind's moral standards, wouldn't murder one of its own members, not in this day and age? Although the London inquest ruled that Calvi's death was suicide, many queried the ruling. The Times (July 26th) reported:

"The choice of Blackfriars Bridge and the bricks in Calvi's pockets probably, in the view of Masonic experts, were intended to give a ritualistic significance to the death of the man."

The ritualistic significance, alluded to by The Times, lies in the fact that all P2 members dressed in black at lodge meetings and addressed each other as "friar," just as English Masons call one another Brother. The bricks are symbolic of the Craft.

The controversy in London over the inquest's ruling was inflamed by the revelation that the police officer heading the investigation, Commander Hugh Moore of the City Police, was a known Mason recently involved in corruption trials involving other Masons. It is perhaps relevant to relate that the power of Freemasonry in the police is such that every Metropolitan Commissioner, from the days of the Ripper murders, has been in the Order. It is also worth noting that on his arrival in Britain, Calvi was helped by one William Morrison, a member of the Grand Lodge of England.

Newspapers throughout Europe, many with Masonic editors, have tried to salvage something from this debacle, which shows International Freemasonry in an extremely bad light, by claiming that it was a unique lodge in that it was infested with "fascists". Linked to the allegation of fascism is the claim that this lodge was responsible for the horrific Bologna railway station bombing of 1980 which left 85 dead.

A clever ploy. After all, who likes a fascist? It may well be that this lodge was responsible for the Bologna outrage, for Judge Aldo Gentile, who investigated the crime for two years was on the point of issuing arrest warrants against high level state officials, who were P2 members when he was quickly removed from office, the intention clearly being to silence him. He is reputed to have said that the 'powers-that-be' were determined to close the file on P2 and that if anyone tried to prevent this, they would be gambling with their life.

Certainly the evidence strongly suggests P2 involvement in the massacre, but was the lodge composed of "fascists"?

Interestingly, all parties represented in the Italian parliament had their counterparts in the P2 Lodge except the neo-Fascist MSI. We also know from Licio Gelli, the Grand Master of P2, that Enrico Berlinguer, the boss of the Italian Communist Party, was a member of the Lodge; the occasion for this information was an interview with Gelli in Corriere della Serra in 1980. How many "fascist" lodges make it a habit to have a top Communist as a member? But there is more...

According to the prestigious US Executive Intelligence Review (Aug. 6th), Henry Kissinger was a member of P2; Henry Kissinger is a Jew. The Review also states that members of the powerful Trilateral Commission (TLC) were in P2. The importance of the TLC (controlled by David Rockefeller--Editor) may be gauged from the fact that the number of members of Ronald Reagan's government who are not on the TLC can be counted on one hand; interestingly many members of the TLC are Jews. We are being asked to believe, therefore, that a Masonic Lodge with a substantial Jewish membership, was fascist; this is like asking us to believe that Adolph Hitler was a Chief Rabbi and close friend of Menachem Begin!

We have drawn attention to P2 because it exposes a regular lodge, supposedly indulging in enlightened charity, involved in corruption, sedition and murder. Can we really believe British Masonic authorities when they deny that they are subversive? P2 is only the tip of the Masonic iceberg; whilst a fragment of this Empire within a State has been exposed, most of the empire remains hidden from view. If it can happen in Italy, it can happen here. Just what are the Masters of British Masonry up to?

EDITORS NOTE: By the time this issue hits the readership, a new book will be on the stands. Titled "In God's Name", it is written by David Yallop. According to the New York Post of 6/11/84: "Yallop writes that members of the secret Italian Masonic Lodge P2, which purportedly had links with the Vatican bank and also the Banco Ambrosiano, were involved in the Pope's death." This book deals with the mysterious death of Pope John Paul I, who reigned for only 33 days. Yallop points the finger at Grand Master Licio Gelli, and writes: "The fact that (he) was in South America at the time of the Pope's death is no alibi in the conventional legal sense." The book will be published by Bantam Books at $16.95.

REPORT FROM THE READERS

(A reader suggested that CT contain a reader forum, so with this issue we begin a report from the readers. If there is something you think should be said, just write-- and if it doesn't make the editor look too bad, it will get printed.)
FROM MINNEAPOLIS, MN.

You would do a great service if you "tracked" researchers on parapsychology and found out how many died young, died mysteriously, or just went nuts. And I can tell you why J.B. Rhine was an exception. The fact of the matter is that we are dealing with living forces, and quite dangerous ones. Not only nuclear technology, but all of technology since the eighteenth century, has been leading to a "channeling" of the Old Ones. The "inventions" of the last 200 or more years present a veritable hieroglyphics of the progress of the channeling operation.

The notion of nuclear radiation, etc., as a channeling agent was quite well written up in a short story back in the early '50s. I can't remember where the story appears, but it was in a men's magazine, perhaps Argosy or True. In any case, the story deals with a man who is going alone to inspect a nuclear bomb-testing site, several hours before detonation. When he gets to the site, he looks around and off-handedly bats at an insect. He actually grabs the thing in his hand and receives a ferocious sting of the most painful sort. He is shocked and then possessed by a panic fear. He is even more shocked to discover that he has apparently become the victim of a time-warp and that detonation of the test bomb is actually going to occur in just a few minutes. He jumps into his jeep and speeds away, fast enough to get to a safe distance, though still very close. The bomb explodes. After the initial flash, he turns around and sees the figure of a giant man expanding within the rapidly climbing mushroom cloud.

I am sure that this was the author's intuitive perception of the living reality behind nuclear forces, in short, the entrance into the world of an Elder God. But the entrance of the Old Ones into the world is not dependent on nuclear energy alone. The development of several technologies has led us in this direction, most notably heavier-than-air flight and computers. Arthur Young, who helped develop the Bell helicopter, found that the psychological problems involved with merely thinking about the helicopter to be quite disturbing.
